

Thursday 20th of November 14.00-16.00

Law and policy: Migration control and migrants' welfare	Institutional practices: Healthcare	Lived experiences: Advocacy and migrant's agency	Lived experiences: Gender
Patrolling politics with no name Nicolay Borchgrevink Johansen, postdoktor Institutt for Kriminologi og rettssosiologi, University of Oslo, Norway	Delivering primary health care to irregular migrants in Norway - Field Experiences after five years Frode Eick, Oslo Church City Mission/Oslo Red Cross, Norway	In the world Anna Lundberg, senior lecturer in Human Rights at Malmö University, Global Political Studies and a member of Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare, and Mikael Spång, Associate Professor in Political Science at the Department of Global Political Studies, Malmö University, Sweden.	Health condition and access to health care among irregular migrant women in Norway Eli Kvamme, Associate Professor, Diakonhjemmet University College. Norway
Multi-level and multi-sited ethnography of irregular transit migration: The case of Turkey with two gateway cities. Assist. Prof. Dr. Ela GÖKALP ARAS. Faculty Member of International Relations Department. Director of Project Development and Coordination Office, Turkey	Regularizing the exceptional: constructing a domestic humanitarian space for health service provision to undocumented migrants in Norway Per Kristian Hilden, Oslo Church City Mission, Norway	Migrants for Migrants Welfare: Looking beyond host governments Jacob Townsend and Zdena Middernacht, PhD candidate at the University of Kent, Brussels School of International Studies, Belgium	Migrant illegality in women friendly Scandinavia: Precarious pregnancy and children of freewheeling fathers Helle Stenum, PhD, Lecturer dep. of Culture and Identity, Roskilde University, Denmark
Open borders and Welfare States: Can't they really get along? Melina Duarte, PhD Candidate, UiT Arctic University of Norway	Irregular Migrant but Regular Patient – Case Study on the French Health Care. Access Department (PASS) in Public Hospitals – Thinking (Un)Formal Citizenship J é r é m y Geeraert, Doctorant en sociologie, IRIS – Paris 13, Centre Marc Bloch – Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, France/Germany	We are here to help each other and to spread information and to do political work ... The No Border Musical and No Border politics Anna Lundberg, senior lecturer in Human Rights at Malmö University, Global Political Studies and a member of Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare, and Emma Söderman, doctoral student at the School of Social Work at Lund University and a member of Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare, Sweden	Lost between migration control and welfare policy: Experiences of undocumented African women immigrants in Sweden Anne Kubai , Faculty of Theology, Uppsala University, Sweden
MIGRANTS AS SCUM OF THE EARTH: Narratives of migrants' vulnerability in South Africa and a critical discussion of their selection Christal O. Spel, Doctoral Student, Social and Public Policy, University of Helsinki, Finland	Enacting the border in the medical encounter Marry-Anne Karlsen, PROVIR, PhD Candidate, Social Anthropology, Uni Rokkan Centre and University of Bergen, Norway	"They take your photograph. You come into existence": Irregular Migrants and Struggles over Representations Synnøve Bendixsen, PROVIR, Post-doctoral fellow, University of Bergen, Norway	Expectations and realities: living with a negative in a Norwegian reception centre context. Silje Thowsen, PROVIR, University of Bergen. Norway

Friday 21st of November 10.30-13.00

Law and policy: Human rights	Institutional practices: Childhood	Institutional practices: Social protection	Lived experiences: Temporality, deportability and insecurity
Fostering (in) irregularity? On the construction and interpretation of the highest attainable standard of health on the basis of migratory status: The ‘attainable’ as ‘equality’. Andrea Sussman, PROVIR, PhD Candidate, Faculty of Law, University of Bergen, Norway	Children of Irregular Migrants and the Norwegian School System Laila Berge, PROVIR, University of Bergen, Norway	Negotiating citizenship through social work practice Vanna Nordling, PhD student at the School of Social Work, Lund University, Sweden	The “Crisis of Presence” among Undocumented Migrants in the Norwegian Welfare State Christina Brux Mburu, University of Oslo , Per Kristian Hilden, Oslo Church City Mission, Anne-Lise Middelthon, University of Oslo , Norway
Vulnerability, the European Court of Human Rights and welfare provision for irregular migrants Sylvie Da Lomba, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, UK	Towards a borderless school: the challenge of regular and irregular migration in education system - the Italian case Sara Bornati, Italy	Local welfare workers and immigrant clients: discretionary practices with undocumented migrants Eduardo Barberis – DESP, University of Urbino Carlo Bo, Italy	Illegality and time Halvar Andreassen Kjærre, PhD candidate, Institute for social anthropology UIB / IMER Bergen. Norway
Towards a European standard on the protection of vulnerable people in extreme need Gijsbert Vonk, Professor of Public Law, University of Groningen, the Netherlands	Protecting children or welfare states? – How Swedish and British asylum officers perceive the creation of the undocumented situation Jacob Lind, Malmö University, Sweden	Social Protection, Migration control and transnational family life: the case of welfare hotels in Paris. Maybritt Jill Alpes. Postdoctoral Researcher VU University Amsterdam .Faculty of Law (Migration Law Section), the Netherlands	The economy of deportability Klara Öberg, École des hautes études en science sociales, IRIS. France
Undocumented migrants' access to healthcare in Europe: norms and practices. Henriette Abbing, (Emiratus) Professor of Health Law, University of Utrecht (the Netherlands)	The Childs affiliation to the Realm Janne Thu Iltstad, PhD candidate at the PhD program Social Work and Social Policy, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences, Norway	Community building and support as responses to isolation and limited mobility in the everyday life of irregular migrants. Maja Sager, PhD, Department of Gender Studies, Lund University / Sociology Department, Lancaster University. Sweden/UK	Undocumented migrants and parenthood Inger Sønderland. Norway
Immigration Control, Imprisonment and Human Rights: Compliance or Conflict? The Norwegian Immigration Act and Human Right Standards Bente Puntervold Bø, Professor emeritus, The research department “Sosialforsk”, Oslo and Akershus University College (HiOA), Norway	A methodological and political discussion on research with refugee youth Pouran Djampour, PhD Candidate, Faculty of Health and Society, Department of Social Work, Malmö University. Sweden.		Between a rock and a hard place: Irregular migrants and assisted return in Norway Hilde Lidén, Institute for Social Research and Synnøve Bendixsen, Department of Social Anthropology, University of Bergen