

Thursday 20th of November 14.00-16.00

Law and policy: Migration control and migrants' welfare Chair/discussant: Bridget Anderson	Institutional practices and lived experiences: Healthcare Chair/discussant: Milena Chimienti	Law, institutional practices and lived experiences: Social protection Chair/discussant: Christine M. Jacobsen	Lived experiences: Temporality, deportability and insecurity Chair/discussant: Lena Näre
Patrolling politics with no name Nicolay Borchgrevink Johansen, Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law, University of Oslo, Norway	Delivering primary health care to irregular migrants in Norway - Field Experiences after five years Frode Eick, Director, Health Centre for undocumented migrants, Oslo Church City Mission/Oslo Red Cross, Norway	The social rights of irregular migrants. A quiet revolution in judicial discourse Dr. C.H. Slingenberg, LL.M. (Lieneke), migration law, VU , the Netherlands	The economy of deportability Klara Öberg, École des hautes etudes en science sociales, IRIS. France
MIGRANTS AS SCUM OF THE EARTH: Narratives of migrants' vulnerability in South Africa and a critical discussion of their selection Christal O. Spel, Social and Public Policy, University of Helsinki, Finland	Irregular Migrant but Regular Patient – Case Study on the French Health Care. Access Department (PASS) in Public Hospitals – Thinking (Un)Formal Citizenship Jérémy Geeraert, IRIS – Paris 13, Centre Marc Bloch – Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, France/Germany	Negotiating citizenship through social work practice Vanna Nordling, the School of Social Work, Lund University, Sweden	Illegality and time Halvar Andreassen Kjørre, Department of Social Anthropology UIB / IMER Bergen. Norway
Open borders and Welfare States: Can't they really get along? Melina Duarte, UiT Arctic University of Norway	Enacting the border in the medical encounter Marry-Anne Karlsen, PROVIR, Department of Social Anthropology, University of Bergen and Uni Research Rokkan Centre, Norway	Local welfare workers and immigrant clients: discretionary practices with undocumented migrants Eduardo Barberis – DESP, University of Urbino Carlo Bo, Italy	Undocumented migrants and parenthood Inger Sønderland, Norway
Fostering (in) irregularity? On the construction and interpretation of the highest attainable standard of health on the basis of migratory status: The 'attainable' as 'equality'. Andrea Sussman, PROVIR, Faculty of Law, University of Bergen, Norway	The "Crisis of Presence" among Undocumented Migrants in the Norwegian Welfare State Christina Brux Mburu, University of Oslo , Per Kristian Hilden, Oslo Church City Mission, Anne-Lise Middelthon, University of Oslo , Norway	Community building and support as responses to isolation and limited mobility in the everyday life of irregular migrants. Maja Sager, Department of Gender Studies, Lund University / Sociology Department, Lancaster University. Sweden/UK	Between a rock and a hard place: Irregular migrants and assisted return in Norway Hilde Lidén, Institute for Social Research and Synnøve Bendixsen, Department of Social Anthropology, University of Bergen and IMER Bergen

Friday 21st of November 10.30-13.00

Law and policy: Human rights Chair/discussant: Karl Harald Søvig	Institutional practices: Childhood Chair/discussant: Marte Knag Fylkesnes	Lived experiences: Advocacy and migrant's agency Chair/discussant: Shahram Khosravi	Lived experiences: Gender Chair/discussant: Christine M. Jacobsen
Towards a European standard on the protection of vulnerable people in extreme need Gijsbert Vonk, University of Groningen, the Netherlands	Protecting children or welfare states? – How Swedish and British asylum officers perceive the creation of the undocumented situation Jacob Lind, Malmö University, Sweden	“They take your photograph. You come into existence”: Irregular Migrants and Struggles over Representations Synnøve Bendixsen, PROVIR, University of Bergen/UNI research Rokkan Centre, Norway	Migrant illegality in women friendly Scandinavia: Precarious pregnancy and children of freewheeling fathers Helle Stenum, Lecturer dep. of Culture and Identity, Roskilde University, Denmark
Vulnerability, the European Court of Human Rights and welfare provision for irregular migrants Sylvie Da Lomba, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, UK	The Childs affiliation to the Realm Janne Thu Iltstad, Social Work and Social Policy, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences, Norway	We are here to help each other and to spread information and to do political work ... The No Border Musical and No Border politics Anna Lundberg, Malmö University and Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare, and Emma Söderman, the School of Social Work at Lund University and Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare, Sweden	Health condition and access to health care among irregular migrant women in Norway Eli Kvamme, Diakonhjemmet University College, Norway
Undocumented migrants' access to healthcare in Europe: norms and practices. Henriette Abbing, University of Utrecht, the Netherlands	Towards a borderless school: the challenge of regular and irregular migration in education system - the Italian case Sara Bornati, Italy	Migrants for Migrants Welfare: Looking beyond host governments Jacob Townsend and Zdena Middernacht, the University of Kent, Brussels School of International Studies, Belgium	Expectations and realities: living with a negative in a Norwegian reception centre context. Silje Thowsen, PROVIR, University of Bergen, Norway
Immigration Control, Imprisonment and Human Rights: Compliance or Conflict? The Norwegian Immigration Act and Human Right Standards Bente Puntervold Bø, The research department “Sosialforsk”, Oslo and Akershus University College (HiOA), Norway	A methodological and political discussion on research with refugee youth Pouran Djampour, Faculty of Health and Society, Department of Social Work, Malmö University, Sweden.	“Helping others and helping myself too” A Study of Irregular Migrants’ Experiences of Doing Volunteer Work Linnea Näsholm, social worker and project coordinator, mental health, Health Centre for undocumented migrants, Oslo	Lost between migration control and welfare policy: Experiences of undocumented African women immigrants in Sweden Anne Kubai, Faculty of Theology, Uppsala University, Sweden